NP, MND-B Soldiers conduct joint ops

Multi-National Division – Baghdad PAO

Talking with local.

BAGHDAD – Cpl. Raudel Madera, assigned to Multi-National Division –

Baghdad's 3rd Battalion, 67th Armor Regiment, 4th Brigade Combat Team, 101st

Airborne Division, meets with a local Iraqi man during Operation Hound Down

Tuesday. Soldiers from 3rd Bn. 67th AR conducted the combined operation with policemen from 1st Iraqi National Police Brigade. The MND-B Soldiers established a perimeter cordon around the neighborhood as the national policemen conducted house-to-house searches with their U.S. Army counterparts acting as observers and backup. Search teams entered homes looking for explosives and illegal weapons. The head of each household was provided a flyer, which explained what the combined forces were searching for. During the operation, several explosives and illegal weapons were seized.
